LULLABY FOR PI TO PREMIERE AT PUSAN INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

September 7, 2010 (Regina, SK) – Minds Eye Entertainment announced earlier today that their highly anticipated feature film Lullaby for Pi has been chosen as an official selection of the Pusan International Film Festival in South Korea from October 7 to 15, 2010.

This will be the world premiere for the film starring Rupert Friend (The Young Victoria), Clémence Poésy (In Bruges) and Academy Award-winner Forest Whitaker (The Last King of Scotland).

Sam (Rupert Friend) is a reclusive and complicated man whose only friend is George (Forest Whitaker), the compassionate and well-intentioned manager of a downtrodden New York City hotel.

Once a promising jazz musician, Sam now spends his nights secluded in a hotel room in an attempt to reconcile the death of his beloved wife Josephine (Sarah Wayne Callies) until an unexpected visitor rushes into his room and locks herself in his bathroom. As mysterious as her mathematical moniker, Pi (Clémence Poésy) takes Sam on a journey of self-discovery through the door of the hotel room bath.

The screenplay was authored by director Benoît Philippon.

Jean-Charles Lévy (Forecast Pictures) and Kevin DeWalt (Minds Eye Entertainment) produced alongside Christine Vachon of Killer Films. The film was co-produced by Frédérique Dumas of Studio 37 and is a Canada-France Treaty Co-production.

Newcomer Matt Ward stars as William, Sam's young protégé. The film features original music from Charlie Winston.

The film was shot in Regina, Saskatchewan and Winnipeg, Manitoba.
