DARK EYE ENTERTAINMENT WELCOMES HAPPY MADISON CO-PRODUCTION

DARK EYE ENTERTAINMENT IN PRODUCTION ON FEATURE FILM *THE SHORTCUT.

July 10, 2008 (Regina, SK) – Dark Eye Entertainment is currently producing The Shortcut alongside Los Angeles-based Leomax Entertainment and Scary Madison, the newest production arm of Adam Sandler’s flagship production company Happy Madison.

The Shortcut centres on two brothers who come upon a rarely-used shortcut in their new town – and reluctantly uncover the reason why the route has been all but abandoned by the local community.

Happy Madison’s Nicholaus Goossen (Grandma’s Boy) will direct the feature film that was co-written by Scott Sandler and Dan Hannon.

The film stars Andrew Seeley (Campus Confidential, One Tree Hill), Shannon Woodward (The Riches) and Dave Franco (Superbad, Greek), and features William B. Davis (X Files, Robson Arms) and Raymond Barry (X Files, CSI).

Principal photography commenced on July 1, 2008 and will wrap on July 25, 2008 utilizing the diverse landscape available in and around Regina, SK.

The feature film comes on the heels of the successful completion of Dolan’s Cadillac, an adaptation of Stephen King’s renowned short story starring Christian Slater, Wes Bentley and Emmanuelle Vaugier produced by Minds Eye Entertainment.
