

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EPIC ADVENTURE SERIES HITS THE AIRWAVES

July 10, 2012

AROUND THE NEXT BEND, the remarkable tale of two young adventurers from Regina, SK who braved ten months on the Ganges River, will air on the RAD X network on Sunday, July 15 at 8:00 PM ET/5:00 PM PT.

The unscripted 12-part series chronicles the story of Dustin Corkery and Adrian Traquair, as they set out aboard a rubber raft intent on paddling from Delhi, India to Dhaka, Bangladesh. They leave home with few supplies; a camera and the raft they intend to carry them 2,500 kilometres down the Ganges River – their previous paddling experience coming only from a field test of the raft in Wascana Lake, a manmade urban water feature in Regina, SK.

Away from the comforts of the western world, the pair must quickly learn to adapt. Driven to the brink of exhaustion, Dustin and Adrian document their challenging, often heartwarming and always charming adventure through the heart of the Himalayan headwaters.

RAD X (RISK ADVENTURE DANGER) can be found on the following television service providers:

- BELL – Channel 1627
- ROGERS – Channel 541
- TELUS – Channel 645
- SASKTEL MAX – Channel 473
